

September 2004 LCRT Newsletter

Lake County Repertory Theater

An auxiliary of the Lake County Arts Council
PO Box 1753, Lower Lake, CA, 95457

Let's produce a play!

October 16, 1 – 4 PM Rod Bauer and Ginger Ingersoll will lead a workshop on "How to Produce a Play" for those interested in all aspects of producing plays for the stage, either for LCRT or independently. The workshop will address how to get a production venue, find and handle money, do publicity and marketing and coordinate technical and artistic personnel. Membership in LCRT is required for all LCRT sponsored workshops. The workshop will be held in Weaver Auditorium at the Lower Lake Schoolhouse Museum. Registration is limited to 20 participants. More information is at www.lcrt.org. Phone 987-3461 or by e-mail: info@lcrt.org.

LCRT hosts Script Writers Workshop November 13, 2004

Joseph Reed Hayes, the playwright of the LCRT November production, "After Two" will present a workshop for playwrights in conjunction with the opening of his original comedy.

Daniel Holland and Carol Dobusch will direct "After Two" which was a finalist in the LCRT "Playing by the Lake" writer's contest. The Workshop will be held in the Weaver Auditorium and registration is limited to 20 participants. Phone 987-3461 or by e-mail: info@lcrt.org.

You can learn more about the playwright at his Web site <http://www.jrhayes.net/plays>.

COMING TO THE WEAVER STAGE NOVEMBER 12 – 14 & 19 – 21, Joseph Reed Hayes' comedy

after two

Co-Directed by Carol Dobusch and Daniel Holland

after two

It is after 2 am in a medium-sized suburban town. At three tables at a late-night pancake house, eight characters relate tales of love and life in its many variations.

Ray loves Carly. Carly loves Darryl, but can't remember why. Sandi loves Bill. Bill loves the waitress. James loves his son. Sam hates everyone. 3 tables, 8 people, 25 minutes ... over and over and over ...

ADVERTISE in LCRT Playbills-
Business Card only $20
LCRT tickets now $12 – a great price for live entertainment.

LCRT KEEPS LAKE COUNTY CLEAN - Next date October 2 at 8 AM

Do you love the outdoors and enjoy walking? Now you too have the opportunity to help "keep Lake County clean" and publicize LCRT. Two miles Highway 29 south of Lower Lake has been adopted for cleanup by LCRT. If you are interested/supportive of this program, members will meet the first Saturday of the month at 8 am at the entrance of Ployez Winery. Contact Ginger Ingersoll with questions and to help.

ginger@lcrt.org

“To Kill a Mockingbird” opens the LCRT 2004-2005 season with sets wowing audiences and the actors are superb. Harper Lee’s classic story was in good hands with LCRT. A new group of actors joined many LCRT veterans to bring the sensitive coming of age story to Lake County. Stand outs were Daniel Lazarus as Atticus, Suna Flores as Miss Maudie, Emily Barker and Jim O’Dell as Mayella and Bob Ewell. First time lighting and sound director, Sterling Thayer Jr. was masterful. The whole cast deserve a standing ovation because it was obvious that they worked extensively to be true to the spirit of Ms. Lee’s story.

JOIN LCRT 2004 -05

Email LCRT, Winkie Griffin at: membership@lcr.org or phone 707/994-8829. LCRT Individual $10, Student $5 or become an Angel, a major sponsor, or buy an ad. Members receive a $2 discount over regular ticket prices and much more. Support Live Theatre in Lake County!

Jane Weaver leaves LCRT Board

Family reasons were cited as the reason original LCRT member Jane Weaver resigned as LCRT Treasurer and from the Board of Directors. Jane was re-elected to the board and as Treasurer in July 2004, however expanding family demands has necessitated her scaling back on most activities as she focuses on family responsibilities. She continues to work with the Schoolhouse Museum so happily we will still get to see both she and John.

LCRT 2004-2005 Season

To Kill a Mockingbird: Sept. 24-26 & Oct. 1-3

After Two: Nov. 12-14 & 19-21, 2004

Bus Stop: Feb. 18-20 & 25-27, 2005

Wit: April 15-17 & 22-24, 2005

Zombies from Beyond: June 17-19 & 24-26, 2005

Theatre Bay Area & North Bay Theatre Group presents

The North Bay Regional Auditions

2Days / 100+ Actors!

Saturday, Nov. 13 - Sunday, Nov. 14, 2004

9:00AM-3:00PM At Cinnabar Theatre in Petaluma

If you are interested in seeing many of the talented non-equity actors living and working in the North Bay, this general audition is for you. More information at <http://www.nbtg.org/> or

<http://www.theatrebayarea.org/tba/auditions.shtml>

Applications to audition must be received by 10/15. Theatre Bay Area member companies pay $25 to have access to the auditioning actors, non-member companies pay $50.

THEATRE AROUND LAKE COUNTY

Lakeport Community Players presents the farce

“Whose Wives Are They Anyway?” by Michael Parker.

Oct. 22 – Nov. 7, 2004. Call 263-1272 for more information.

2004-2005 LCRT Directors

Rod Bauer, President

Cindy Car, Vice President

Voris Brumfield, Secretary

Claudia Listman, Financial Secretary

Bert Hutt

Jack Hewitt

Ginger Ingersoll

Daniel Lazarus

Sterling Thayer

Brian Williams

LCRT Newsletter created by Voris Brumfield

Web: www.lcrt.org E-mail: info@lcr.org with corrections

September 28, 2004