Auditions set for “Spirit” The next LCRT production by Peg Kehret, will be held Wednesday, January 18, at 6:30 pm, room 605 of Yuba College. “Spirit” is a comedy with a wry twist or two about a rebellion of the residents in an old folks’ home – just right for Lake County! There are parts for adult men and women in the 65 to 95 age group, and for younger adults in the 20 to 55 age bracket. Anyone interested and may not yet be a member of LCRT is invited to audition and join if cast. Anyone who can attend the audition, contact director Claudia Listman at: clistman@ncen.org.

“SPIRIT” runs March 17–19 and 24–26 at the Weaver Auditorium

LCRT’S RENAISSANCE CHRISTMAS PAGEANT & FEAST

Nobles from the 2005 cast from the LCRT production of the Pageant.

The Middletown Methodist Church presented the event for 11 years, but could not house the 2005 pageant. Nearly all six performances were sold out with “A Tasteful Affair” as caterer.

LCRT SCHOLARSHIP FOR GRADUATING

SENIOR The LCRT Board funded a $250 scholarship to Max Oken, a graduating senior from Kelseyville High School in 2005. Panache Salon will be the funding agent for the 2006 $500 scholarship for a graduating senior with interest and experience in Theater. This scholarship is given to a graduating senior chosen competitively from any Lake County secondary school based upon the best 500-word essay, high school transcript, acceptance into a college or university, and his/her theatrical resume.

LCRT LOGO APPROVED
The LCRT Board approved the LCRT logo created by Laura Lamar of MAX GRAPHICS.
